

Bitterwasser is also a place for youngsters. With the Europe-wide Bitterwasser Cup and a success at German Gliding Championships juniors have the chance to be invited to the gliding center. Two winners have already been determined: Lukas Blattmann (4th) from the Flugsportclub Charlottenburg Berlin and Mike Bauer (5th) from the Eichstätt Flying. These two club class pilots won the ticket to the 1000 kilometer camp of Wilfried Großkinsky in Zwickau as the best juniors. Simon Briel from LSV Homberg Ohm, this year's best junior in the standard class and second in the Junior World Championships in Szeged, was already at the camp last season, will receive a special invitation by Wilfried Großkinsky and Rainer Hog with Bitterwasser AG.

The Bitterwasser Cup is still running, and the winners of the OLC Junior Challenge have not been decided yet. The award ceremony will take place on October 5 at the OLC Symposium in the Rhön.
